

THE WIMBOLDSLEY WEEKLY

21st December 2023

@WimboldsleyCPS

It's always quite a shock when this time of year comes around and we find ourselves sharing our best wishes for Christmas and the New Year. It seems like time is completely flying by and I often wonder where the year has gone! I just wanted to personally thank everyone in our Wimboldsley community - pupils, staff and families - for all of your ongoing support, dedication and commitment to our school. It really is what makes Wimboldsley special. I am so excited to see and hear all about what 2024 brings for our school and although I will be having some time away with my family via maternity leave, I shall certainly be visiting and keeping myself 'in the loop' in preparation for my eventual return. I will miss you all and I thank you kindly for all of your well wishes and congratulations over the last few months; your responses and support have been very much welcomed. Enjoy your break, whatever your plans, and here's to making 2024 the best that it can be!

Panto Fun

Last Friday, the whole school enjoyed a wonderful trip to The Grange Theatre in Northwich to watch "Goldilocks and the Three Bears". We had a fabulous time with lots of laughter and some delicious ice cream.

Hot chocolate

This half term's team point competition was a close run race but was finally won by the red team, who enjoyed a hot chocolate party as their reward. Congratulations to the reds - we wonder who will win next half term?!

Acting Headteacher

Just a reminder that Mrs Vicki Hughes will be taking over as Acting Headteacher during my maternity leave and the Headteacher email address will remain the same: head@wimboldsley.cheshire.sch.uk

Christmas lunch

A huge thanks to Nicky and Tina in the kitchen for preparing and serving us all another delicious Christmas lunch this year. The Christmas music and crackers added to the festive atmosphere and helped get everyone in the mood for the Christmas break and also

Merry Christmas

Look who came to visit!

Well it wouldn't be a Christmas at Wimboldsley without a visit from a very special someone... That's right, all pupils (and staff) were treated to another annual visit from our very own Father Christmas and what a treat it was! A magical and exciting way to kick-off the Christmas break!
